FOREIGN BROADCAST INFORMATION SERVICE

Polish Coverage

Warsaw radio broadcasting has settled down to the pattern characteristic of the period since the introduction of martial law, with the main domestic service being broadcast from Warsaw area transmitters and regional radios remaining off the air. Polish press agency (PAP) transmissions are being carried regularly and Warsaw television is in normal programming. TASS continues to carry selected PAP material. Warsaw's international service is continuing in various languages.

25X1

Only three daily newspapers are being published in Warsaw (with copies of two being received at FBIS Vienna), and Polish regional newspapers are now once again being received by FBIS London for processing, as the mail services have resumed. BBC, in addition to monitoring the Polish domestic service at Caversham, is relying on a leased line from the FBIS Austrian Bureau to receive Polish broadcasts. BBC is also maintaining its operation in Berlin, primarily for Warsaw television monitoring.

Support to Secretary Haig

At the request of State Operations Center, FBIS refiled to Secretary Haig in California on 30 December a West German (DPA) press agency dispatch carrying statements by an FRG spokesman concerning President Reagan's announcement of sanctions against the USSR. The report also covered aspects of West German-Polish relations.

Exchange Program

The Library of Congress Exchange and Gifts Division recently received 8,000 published monographs from China. The shipments are in partial fulfillment of an exchange agreement between the Library of Congress and the PRC National Library. Another 2,000 are expected soon. FBIS is reviewing the collection, and so far some 40 titles have been selected for processing for information of intelligence interest. [redacted] 25X1
